

“JOBS, JOBS, JOBS”

Washington flourished -- but the people did not share in its wealth. Politicians prospered -- but the jobs left, and the factories closed..... The establishment protected itself, but not the citizens of our country.....

Americans want great schools for their children, safe neighborhoods for their families, and good jobs for themselves..... One by one, the factories shuttered and left our shores, with not even a thought about the millions upon millions of American workers left behind..... Every decision on trade, on taxes, on immigration, on foreign affairs, will be made to benefit American workers and American families.

We must protect our borders from the ravages of other countries making our products, stealing our companies, and destroying our jobs. Protection will lead to great prosperity and strength.....

We will bring back our jobs..... Rebuilding our country with American hands and American labor.....

We will follow two simple rules: Buy American and Hire American.....

Excerpts, Inaugural Speech of President Trump, January 20, 2017

“Globalization” is over. It reached its zenith in 2007 – that being the point where the underlying economies had been cannibalized to the maximum differential point.....

“Protectionism” can be broken into three words: Jobs, Jobs and Jobs.

We are rapidly approaching the critical inflection point where that realization will be widespread – the so-called “Recovery” is the Nexus - into Jobs forcing Protectionism to become a Political Imperative. That’s the real takeaway from Massachusetts.....

Excerpts, “Capitalism Reigns”, February 2010
